IN MEMORIAM

Dr. Frances Floreine Herron Hudson, Professor Emerita of Education, died on August 12 at the age of 102. Born in Columbus, she spent most of her life in Georgia. She received her B.S. in Mathematics from Georgia State College for Women, and began her teaching career in Harris County and later in Muscogee County. During the 1940s, she earned her M.S. in Administration from Auburn University. She returned to Auburn for her Ed.D., where she was the first woman to receive a doctorate in Education (1957). After teaching six years with the DeKalb County School System, she became a Professor of Education at Georgia State University, where she retired in 1977 as a Professor Emerita.

Dr. Hudson has been listed in numerous “Who’s Who” publications. She was a named donor to the 1915 Society of the College of Education at Auburn University. She was the author of numerous publications and for many years served on an evaluation team in the DeKalb County Public Schools. She served four years as national president of Kappa Delta Epsilon, a professional fraternity for students in Education, while in her 80s. Among the organizations which she served as president are: Atlanta Branch AAUW, Retired Teachers Association, Oak Grove Chapter AARP, the Georgia Association for Higher Education, and the Peachtree Pilots Club.

NEWS & NOTES

Well-Being Is a State of Mind and Body

Georgia State has a new magazine, Healthy Lifestyles eMagazine https://healthylifestyles.gsu.edu. Soon you will receive an email copy. If you do not receive a copy, send your request to Missy Cody mcody@gsu.edu, along with the email address that you wish to be on the distribution list.

The University System of Georgia is focusing on well-being activities as a part of Total Rewards. Check out what programs and incentives are available to you at the Employee Development and Wellness Services at Georgia State website https://hr.gsu.edu/service-centers/edws/. If there is an activity you would like to see that isn’t mentioned, contact Missy Cody at mcody@gsu.edu.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Welcome to all emeriti reading this newsletter. We seek to help maintain ties you made before retirement, and inform you of ways that the Georgia State campus you knew is much the same yet transformed into something new. So please send me articles about your retirement activities at cgalant@gsu.edu. Have you discovered some volunteering activity that is particularly rewarding? Your former colleagues want to know about you!

The University Library on the downtown campus is now sponsoring workshops on recent library features, presentations by GSU faculty of their latest research, and panel discussions by GSU faculty of current events and local issues. All are welcome. For 2019 events, please check “Upcoming Events” on their calendar at https://library.gsu.edu/.
ATTENTION EMERITI: Please update or add your email address so that we can contact you electronically related to emeriti activities. If we do not have your correct email address, you may miss communications sent by email. Send updates to: http://emeriti.gsu.edu/contact-us/.

To update Human Resources information, you may send an email to: payroll@gsu.edu or benefits@gsu.edu or call 404-413-3302.

For more information or to RSVP for any upcoming events, visit the Emeriti Association website at http://emeriti.gsu.edu/calendar.

Most information for retirees will be coming from the USG Offices, and that will be through OneUSG. The OneUSG URL for retiree information is https://www.usg.edu/hr/benefits/2018_benefits/explore_your_2018_benefits. From there you will find links to the online site, and information on the Benefits Call Center at 1-844-587-4236.
